

SUGGESTED TOURS - TUCSON, 2010

PIMA AIR MUSEUM

We will begin our tour with a driving visit thru the Bone yard, home to over 4000 military aircraft, and often referred to as the world's third largest Air Force. We will meet our museum step-on guides just prior to our one hour tour. You will be required to provide valid government identification (a drivers license will be fine). We will then spend the rest of the time at the Pima Air Museum, established in 1967 and now ranked as the third largest aviation history museum in the U.S. View models, uniforms, insignia, WWII mock-up airmen's quarters, a B-29 "Superfortress," Douglas "Globemaster," F-84 "Shooting Star," F-100 "Super Sabre," SR-71, and a pristinely restored B-17. There are over 200 planes on display including JFK's Air Force One. Trace America's heritage of flight from a full-scale replica of the Wright brothers' plane to the X-15 rocket that first took men to the edge of space. For a nominal fee, payable at the museum, take advantage of the convenience of a tram ride through this outdoor museum.

Being a living museum it features animals, plants, and fish native to the Sonora Desert - a 120,000 square mile region of Arizona, the Mexican State of Sonora, and the Gulf of California. Enjoy lunch on your own at Ironwood Terrace. This is a fully narrated walking tour for groups of about 15: please wear comfortable shoes.

OLD TUCSON

Spend the day in Hollywood; "Hollywood in the desert" that is, the nickname for Old Tucson Studios. This 1860's Old West Town was built up from the accumulation of movie sets and props which provide a unique background for family fun. Shops, restaurants, gunfights, and musical revues await guests daily, all surrounded by Sonoran Desert scenery. Upon arrival you will be given a meal coupon for lunch and a show schedule for that day. Enjoy a BBQ lunch at Big Jake's at your leisure. Your show schedule will tell you when to start making your way to the Grand Palace Hotel and Saloon for a western show.
